JAMES HENNESSY SEEN LATELY IN TIJERAS CANYON

Last of Poses of Searchers
Returning; Bring Report
That Woman Saw Wanderer
Thursday Afternoon.

That James Hennessy, the locomotive engineer who disappeared from his home May 24, was alive at late as Thursday and roaming on the west slope of the Sandia mountains, was indicated by the report brought to Albuquerque last night by the last members of the posse of searchers that set out Thursday.

The searchers who came back last night, learned that the man, whose trail they picked up from time to time, beginning in the arroyo west of the powder house on the mesa, was seen as late as 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon in Tijeras canyon. The woman, who saw him last, gave them a description that indicated the man was Hennessy.

This was the last trace of the man picked up by the searchers. Their horses were tired from the long search, so they returned to the city for fresh mounts. Before turning back, however, they spread the information among residents of the foothills and mountains to hold the man if he should reappear and send word to Albuquerque. They will return to the search again.

News of the man wandering in the mountains was picked up at several places. The description given by persons who saw him corresponded closely enough to convince the searchers that it was the same man.

That Walker will prove to be a worthy successor. While Walker is a good outfielder, he has not shown the remarkable qualities which made Speaker the idol, not only of the Boston fans, but of the baseball-loving public all over the American league circuit.

DETAILED PLANS FOR WELCOME OF DELEGATES MADE

St. Louis Ready to Offer Visiting Democrats Royal Entertainment; Many Associations Co-operate.

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE)
St. Louis, Mo., June 9.—Detailed plans for the entertainment of delegates and visitors at the democratic national convention here next week have been formulated. Under auspices of the general entertainment committee, in connection with the Business Men's league, delegates and alternates will be taken on an automobile ride on the first day, June 14.

Another afternoon the visitors will attend the ball game. From the ball park they will be taken on a river excursion, either on the steamer Grey Eagle or St. Paul. A buffet dinner will be served on the boat.

The Kentucky society will treat its guests to an automobile ride and a dinner at an inn about twelve miles from the city. Other state clubs have established headquarters, and applications for hotel room and so forth will be taken care of as well as possible. Most of the hotel space already has been taken, but the state organizations, especially the college and university contingent, are booking rooms in all places possible, even in private homes.

College clubs have made arrangements for several receptions during the convention, and have provided several entertainments which will save of undergraduate days.

The hospitality of St. Louis will be extended, not only to delegates, but to visitors from other states who come here during convention week.

The various civic organizations in the city have been canvassed and to each has been assigned the entertainment of delegates and visitors from a specific state. Members of the various organizations who have automobiles will take the delegates and visitors from the specified states on an automobile tour of the parks and residence streets of the city.

On the night of June 12—the night before the convention—the Metropolitan Opera company of New York will give an outdoor production of Wagner's Siegfried. This will be staged in Robinson field, the baseball park of the St. Louis Nationals.

On the night of Monday, June 12, the democratic national committee and the visiting newspaper men outside the city. Automobile transportation will be provided for the guests.

Some reports say the demonstrations were in part incited by agitators. Mass meetings were held in St. Louis last night at which many speeches condemning the presence of American troops in Mexico were made. Similar meetings have been held or are contemplated at other points. The only violence against American property reported was at Chihuahua City and Monterey, where there are no consular agents.

Statements from Americans reaching the border and also from consular agents in Mexico, indicated that while General Carranza's forces were trying to overcome the demonstrators, their control was not to be depended on entirely in some districts. The agitators, some officials fear, may arouse public opinion to a point where an attempt to expel General Pershing's men by force may be undertaken. There is nothing to indicate that Carranza's regular troops will join in such a movement, but should Carranza's forces join the mob, a situation might be created from which there would be no peaceful escape.

No Fear for Safety.
Army officials have no fear for the safety of the American expedition. It is so closely concentrated as to be fully able to defend itself in any emergency and also to lend protection to a wide stretch of the border. No new troop dispositions were in progress today, Secretary Baker said, and General Funston's reports have been of a routine character for several days.

The spread of the anti-American agitation may delay the sending of a reply to General Carranza's note demanding recall of the American troops. Creation of an international commission to discuss all difficulties is known to have been suggested, under existing treaties, and it is said the proposal still is before President Wilson.

ANTI-AMERICAN DEMONSTRATIONS ARE NOT ABATING

Residents Leaving for Border in Steadily Increasing Numbers; United States Expedition Considered Safe.

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE)
Washington, June 9.—Anti-American demonstrations in northern Mexico continue, according to official advice today; particularly in the states of Chihuahua, San Luis Potosi and Nuevo Leon, and although the manifestations thus far have been confined mostly to speech making, consular agents have reported that the temper of the people appears such that any eventualities might be possible.

Americans are leaving for the border in steadily increasing numbers. Under previous instructions, state department agents in Mexico are giving every possible aid. In addition border agents have been instructed to urge those seeking to return to Mexico to stay on the American side of the border for the present.

Agitators Busy.
Some reports say the demonstrations were in part incited by agitators. El Paso, June 9.—Reports here today of anti-American literature circulated in Parral and other cities in Chihuahua. W. R. Ballard of the Cinco de Mayo Mining company at San Antonio, Mexico, who arrived from Parral, said that several incendiary publications there are nursing a spirit of resentment against the Americans. He denied rumors here that Villa had taken the field in that vicinity and looted several small towns. Numerous wild rumors of anti-American demonstrations in various parts of the state were circulated in El Paso today, but investigation substantiated none of them. Private advices from Chihuahua City, said the city is again quiet, while reports from Durango City indicated that earlier dispatches telling of riots had little basis.

Two deserters from General Pershing's expeditionary command were brought to Juarez today under Carranza's guard.

CARRANZA'S MEN AND BANDITS TO WAGE BIG FIGHT

Constitutionalists and Force of 600 Outlaws Facing Each Other South of Parral; Battle Imminent.

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE)
Chihuahua City, Mexico, June 9.—A battle is imminent between Constitutional forces and a band of 600 outlaws now camped on the Rio Florida, about fifty miles west of Parral, according to official dispatches here today.

A scouting party of General Ignacio Ramos' command engaged the bandits near Los Nieves yesterday, but was forced by a shortage of ammunition to retire, after inflicting heavy losses on the enemy and losing two officers and nineteen men. General Ramos has left his headquarters in the town of Rio Florida at the head of a strong column planning to co-operate with a second force of men under General Jacinto Hernandez from Rosario. Dispatches here said the joint command expected to encounter the outlaws, led by Calisto Contreras, Erbe Beltran, Gerónimo Padilla and Nicholas Hernandez, and who include a number of Yaqui Indians, near Torreón de Carrizal tonight or tomorrow.

It was reported that this band, the largest now in the field, had been concentrated with the ultimate object of attacking Parral and seizing mining property there. However, military authorities here said that troops have now been disposed of so as to eliminate any such possibility.

Chihuahua City has been quiet since the recent anti-American demonstrations and apparently much of the excitement then manifested had died down.

Jake Myer Leaves for Ajo to Manage Store
